PAVING BID IS REJECTED

LOWEST FIGURE TURNED DOWN AT LAST NIGHT'S MEETING OF COUNCIL.

RESOLUTIONS NOT FOLLOWED

Three Bids Were Submitted But One Was Withdrawn After a Lively Discussion—Will Re-Advise for Bids.

The City Council met last night in the auditorium of the city hall for the first time. The roll call found Hope, Hill, West, Sims and Chapman present. Grigsby arrived later. It was decided to take up the paving proposition and pass up all other business until the next meeting. There were three bids in for the paving of the three streets, Main, Broadway and Townsend, the bidders being the Parker-Washington company, represented by David McCormick of St. Louis, Shelby-Doward company of Ardmore represented by Harry Levy of Muskogee, The Metropolitan company of Kansas City, represented by James Hamilton.

Perhaps two hours were consumed in a discussion by Mr. Levy, Mr. Hamilton and the Council relative to Hamilton's bid. The point in question was whether or not Mr. Hamilton's bid was regular inasmuch as he had not stated in writing whether or not the engineering fee was included, he only making a verbal statement that it was. Mr. Levy's statement was that Mr. Hamilton had not followed the specifications in preparing his bid. Some members of the council wished to open the bids before passing judgment on Hamilton's bid, and a motion was made by Sims and seconded by Grigsby to open the bids but the motion was withdrawn. Both Levy and Hamilton desired the matter settled before the bids were opened.

Withdraws Bid.
After some more discussion of the same technicality, Hamilton withdrew the bid of the Metropolitan company, which action was agreeable with the council and was followed by a motion by Hill, seconded by Sims that the bids be opened. Motion was carried.

The bid for the paving of 38,680 square yards was as follows:
The Parker-Washington company, total amount of bid, $47,333.40, which was $2.18 per square yard.

Shelby & Doward total amount of bid $90,007.24, which was $2.33 per square yard.

The Parker-Washington company's bid stated the work would be completed within 300 days. Shelby and Doward's bid did not state the length of time they would take to complete the work.

After the reading of the bids, West and Hope made motion that the council go into executive session and the motion was carried.

Quite a bit of arguing was done over the lowest bid. It was found that in two instances the bid did not conform with the specifications.

was that all the officers of the company were not given and the other was that no specified time as to the completion of the work was given. Some of the councilmen took the stand that, besides the bid not conforming to the resolution, one bid was caused to be withdrawn on account of a technicality, and in justice to that bid the other should be objected for the same reason.

Motion was then made by Hill and seconded by Hope that Shelby & Doward be awarded the contract. A vote was taken with the following result: Yes—West, Hill, Hope (3). No—Chapman, Sims, Grigsby, Little (4), the mayor having to settle the matter.

Chapman and Hope put up motion to adjourn until Wednesday night and the city attorney was instructed to draw up another resolution for the paving to be taken up at that meeting and the work will be readjusted.

No delay in the matter will be occasioned as ten days only are required for the advertising and it is impossible to do any actual work during the month of January.

DISTINGUISHED OKLAHOMA JUDGE

More than any other Oklahoma citizen and more than any other of the judiciary throughout the nation has Judge Henry M. Furman of Ada received popular national press recognition since his occupancy as presiding judge of the bench of the Oklahoma criminal court of appeals.

His now notable and distinguished "Harmless Error" decision has met with the approbation of the intelligent and justice-loving people of the entire country.

The latest issue of Collier's, the national weekly, makes the following editorial reference to another opinion of the Oklahoma criminal court of appeals:

"Hurrah for This."
"Light has a way, in the long run, of breaking out. The Criminal Court of Appeals of Oklahoma, in a recent decision in a criminal case, in which the court decided that the word 'the' before the words 'State of Oklahoma' in the caption of an information was not fatal, and would not reverse a case, said:

"We know that there are respectable authorities holding to the contrary, but this court will not follow any precedents, unless we know and approve the reason upon which they are based—it matters not how numerous they may be, or how eminent the court by which they are promulgated."

Now that our criminal jurisprudence is in its formative period, we are determined to do all in our power to place it upon the broad and sure foundation of reason and justice, so that the innocent may find it to be a refuge of defense and protection, and that the guilty may be convicted, and taught that it is an exceedingly serious and dangerous thing to violate the laws of this state."

"We take of our decision as the final court of appeals of Oklahoma, and greet this decision with a cheer. Far may its influence spread."

A Beneficial Notice.

The Internal Order of Eagles will for the next sixty days give a special dispensation, which reduces the membership fees and the first month's dues to six and 25-100 dollars. Membership in this lodge is considered very desirable, not only on account of its exemplary fraternal spirit and benefits, but it is especially attractive to men with families for every member secures all necessary medical attention without any doctor bill for one dollar a month. The Eagles select their own doctors for whose services the lodge pays. Men don't neglect filing your application to become a member of the Fraternal Order of Eagles, for you cannot afford to miss it.

SPECIAL SESSION EXPECTED

THIS WEEK WILL LIKELY SEE ISSUANCE OF GOVERNOR'S PROCLAMATION.

CHANGE IN LAW DISCUSSED

Fees of County Officers Will Come Up—Appropriations Will Probably Be Recommended for Institutions.

Guthrie, Ok., Jan. 4.—While no one who has conferred with Gov. Haskell on the subject is at liberty to speak authoritatively, the prevailing opinion is that a call for a special session of the legislature will be issued this week. Among the callers today were Ben Wilson of Cereola, Speaker of the House; Ed L. Dunn of Oklahoma City, one of the democratic house leaders; Senators Jesse Hatcher of Bryan county and D. M. Smith of Duncan; Leslie Ross of Lawton, another house leader, was here last week.

Advisability and necessity of an extra session is freely discussed between the governor and his callers. It is understood that work of the extra session, if one is found to be necessary, will be limited to five or six subjects, and aside from a proposed regulation of fees charged by county and district officers, there will be little of what might be called new legislation. Senator Smith urged the governor to feature the fee system, declaring that a proper revision will save litigants at least a million dollars a year. He regards such legislation as imperative, because all offices to be affected are selected at the coming general election, and a change of salary or compensation during an officer's term is prevented.

Taxation will also come in for attention and some method be devised to curb the tendency of county and district boards to collect more money in taxes than is necessary to operate the subdivisions of government. Appropriations will probably be recommended for the state board of affairs, the code commission and for the state blind school at Fort Gibson.

The code commission has about half completed its work, according to statements of its members, although the appropriation made by the Second Legislature only lasted until Dec. 1 last. The same is true in a measure with the state board of affairs, while the loss of a $5,000 appropriation for maintenance because of an encroaching clause was omitted from the enrolled copy of the bill.

No one appears to know whether changes will be recommended for the banking law, and unless a law is specifically submitted it can not be tampered with during an extra session.

All sessions of the legislature can sit without limit, but it is the prevailing belief that an extra session called now will be able to complete the work to be submitted within thirty days.

GORE IN MISSOURI CAMPAIGN.

Oklahoman Will Help Democratic Nominee in Contest.

Warrensburg, Mo., Jan. 3.—United States Senator Thomas P. Gore, the blind statesman of Oklahoma, will campaign the Sixth Missouri District in behalf of C. C. Dickinson, the Democratic nominee for the late David A. DeArmond's seat. This announcement was made here today at the meeting of the Johnson county democratic committee.

Mr. Dickinson addressed the committee and told of the plan to begin the campaign for this city next Monday when Senator William J. Stone will fire the opening oratorical gun. Senator Stone also will make a few speeches before returning to Washington for the reconvening of congress.

SUPREME COURT DISMISSES PIPE LINE CASE

POINT OF ISSUE BETWEEN WEST AND HASKELL SETTLED.

Supreme Court Sustained the Governor and Attorney General Carl.

Washington, D. C., Jan. 3.—The dismissal by the United States supreme court today of the appeal made by Attorney General West of Oklahoma from the supreme court of that state, involving the action instituted by West against the Prairie Oil and Gas company, in July, 1908, recalls a sensational incident of the sudden appearance of Governor Haskell of Oklahoma in the limelight of national politics and settles ultimately the point at issue between the governor and the attorney general, namely, the right of the attorney general to institute proceedings in the name of the state without executive advice or authority.

The dismissal of particular interest to Oklahoma at this time because of the involved point having again been raised recently when the governor revoked the authority of the attorney general to investigate the cause of the failure of the Columbia Bank and Trust company of Oklahoma City.

Appeal to Governor.

The day of the departure of Governor Haskell for Denver, to attend the national democratic convention in July, 1908, Attorney General West received word that the Prairie Oil and Gas company, which is a subsidiary of the Standard Oil company, was violating the state constitution by laying mains over public highways for the piping of natural gas.

The company appealed to the governor and he wired the attorney general not to proceed with an injunction which he had threatened. West, however, secured an injunction before District Judge Huston at Guthrie.

Case Appealed.

The case was appealed to the supreme court on the point of the attorney general's authority to institute such proceedings without authority from the governor. The supreme court sustained the governor and the attorney general appealed to the United States supreme court. The Prairie Oil company in its appeal to the governor declared that its operations in laying mains were not in violation of the constitution and that it was crossing public highways in order to extend its system of gas supply. Later an agreement was entered into whereby the company was permitted to fulfill a contract, entered into prior to statehood, to supply natural gas to manufacturing institutions in Caney, Kansas.

The case of the government against the Standard Oil company, involving an effort on the part of the government to have the company dissolved, came before the court today. The court took the motion to advance the hearing, under advisement.

TO APPOINT NEGRO ENUMERATOR

Census Director Durand Predicts Final Figures Will Show.

Washington, Jan. 3.—Predicting that the coming count will show approximately 10,000,000 negroes in the United States, directing that negroes be selected to count their race in those enumerations districts where blacks muster two-fifths or more of the population, and requiring both white and negro enumerators in many Southern districts to preclude negroes from enumerating white, Census Director Durand today issued general instructions to supervisors.

"Negroes doubtless can obtain the information required from their own race more accurately than white enumerators," says Mr. Durand. "I do not consider it desirable that in the South negro enumerators be selected to count the white population as white enumerators could."

The instructions, approved by Secretary Nagel, subject all applicants to the efficiency test.

TEXAS BOY WHO CAME HERE FOR WORK DIES

DAVE ARGO GIVEN PAUPER BURIAL YESTERDAY.

Was in Three Weeks—Communication From Parent Advises City to Bury Son.

Dave Argo who died Saturday was buried late yesterday afternoon in the pauper's section of Rosedale cemetery.

Dave's residence in Ada was a sad one. Coming here a month ago from Carrollton, Tex., his home, he secured work as a railway section laborer. After a week's work he was seized by illness which developed into typhoid fever. His home was in a boarding tent situated near the Oklahoma Central railroad.

Conditions in a tent of this kind of weather for a sick man can not be very favorable, so Dave grew steadily worse despite the efforts of the city physician and on Saturday, at the age of 17, he passed to the world beyond. His father is dead and his mother and step-father live at Carrollton. They were advised of the boy's death and the mother requested the local authorities to bury the body at the expense of the city.

A brother of the boy has been in the city several days but refused to look at the corpse, saying he didn't know what to do.

HEATING PLANTS NOT READY

MONDAY

East Side School Will Resume Duty

Tomorrow Morning Normal

Placing Pupils.

The heating plants of the local school buildings, which caused a shut-down several weeks ago, are still causing delay.

The announcement was made a few days ago that the heating plants would be in satisfactory condition for the resuming of school yesterday morning. The board of education had received this assurance, but the work fell down somehow.

Monday morning the North and East side buildings were cold from the lack of heat, but good work enabled the North side school to begin study this morning, and it is announced that the East side will be ready for work tomorrow morning.

Yesterday at the Normal was spent in classifying the students, placing them where the recent examination directed them.

East Side Principal J. H. Ray, Miss Evelyn Ray, principal of the North side school, will be unable to resume her work tomorrow being very ill at her home in Prague.

DIFFICULTIES DAILY

COUNTRY PRESS
The News' advertising support is not sufficient to afford the employment of a society editor. The very large percentage of this little press' advertising patronage—the support that's worth while—is received from those whose regard for any society columns of the News would be distinctly negligible. There is acknowledged—even asserted—the superiority of the finesse of the culture and attractiveness of the Ada society ladies over any other complement of society ladies in any other little city on earth. But not being able to support a society editor and being compelled to direct our personal attention toward the wolf at the door, rather than towards the lambs at the slaughter, very necessarily the News' society columns have been in the past limited to the reports secured through the kindly and appreciated offices of some sympathizing lady friend.

There is deeply appreciated the reluctancy accounted for because of the refined modesty and delicacy of the two or three ladies who have occasionally favored the News with a brief synopsis of the lately preceding social events. These ladies understood the difficulties with which a country daily press are confronted in gathering and editing the social news and also were mindful of the necessarily limited space which could properly be contributed to such class of occurrences. It will be very satisfactory indeed when the News has become strong enough to meet the most exacting social requirements.

HOLD YOUR HAT.
Some of the prospective candidates for county and district office have discussed with the News editor the propriety of early announcements for the offices to which they aspire, appearing to be undecided relative to the personal political discreetness of announcing now or later. While unwilling to assume to know which action would be best for the proposed candidates of our friends and being duly mindful of the timeliness of the receipt of the announcement fees, there has been frankly stated, that it would better conserve the interests as a whole of all the candidates and the party which they are attached, should they hold their horses for a while longer.

The longer, the more expensive the campaign. The greater the duration of an active campaign, the more hazard, that there might be injected in the campaign those personal equations reflective personally and on the party. It is a good while till August, the month of the primary election.

The late winter and the early spring could well be consumed by both candidates and voters in improving the always imperfect financial fences.

Yes, boys, let's not drop the hat for a little while longer, then for a fair race to the finish.

Yesterday's issue of the Denison Herald contained a letter addressed to the editor of that paper from Commander Robert Peary, north pole discoverer, thanking the editor for his apology to the explorer for atfirs: discrediting his feat.

Peary states in the letter that, as far as he has learned, the Herald is the only newspaper in this country that has acknowledged its error. He refers to his declaration of several months ago when he branded Cook as a fakir, and he now hits the newspapers of the country, by saying that almost without exception they express themselves in this childish way: "Peary appears to have been right, but he was no gentleman to have used the language that he did."

Perhaps Peary used bum language, but for the past few weeks most people are free to admit that he was not a bit too harsh on one Doctor Cook.

TALK OF THE DAY.

Standing before a mirror, John Burchell, Jr., of Halcottsville, Delaware county, N. Y., took his jackknife and cut around five of his aching teeth loosening them a little, after which he inserted a pair of pin-chers in his mouth and coolly pulled out the trouble makers one by one.

A short time after this operation
two more that were not acting right, and he lost no time in removing them.

Burchell had suffered for several days from toothache and although he had applied various remedies, none of them appeared to do him any good.
He then decided that he had sufficient nerve and grit to act as his own dentist.—Boston Globe.

olent heart, brought yuletide cheer to prisoners in the lockup at Washington, Pa. Finnerty, who says he came from Fayette county to celebrate, was locked up. When a light fine was imposed he tendered in payment a check for $100. Telephone communication with a Uniontown bank showed Finnerty had plenty of funds there.

As he was leaving court he turned to a half score of prisoners arraigned before Justice Hoyt and asked if they had any money. Assured all were penniless, he paid the total of their fines. Not waiting to receive thanks, he disappeared.

Soon afterward he reappeared with an armful of chrysanthemums and presented the burges and each member of the police force with one. One prisoner who after spending the night in the lockup and having a hearing had been taken to jail before the Uniontown man was arraigned, was bailed out by the generous stranger.

When Finnerty departed for Uniontown on an afternoon train he was escor'd to the station by a band of grateful ex-prisoners, each wearing a yellow chrysanthemum.—Pittsburg

STATE RATE FIGHT HAS BEGUN AT ST. LOUIS

OKLAHOMA AND RAILROADS COM- MENCE SCRAP.

Constitution Clause Is Attacked by Railroads—Attorney General
West in Charge.

St. Louis, Jan. 3.—Arguments in the injunction suit instigated by three railroad companies against the state of Oklahoma to prevent enforcement of two-cent a mile passenger rate, were begun today before Judge William C. Hook, sitting as a district judge for the Western district of Oklahoma.

Charles West, attorney-general of Oklahoma, assisted by F. N. Judson, of St. Louis, presented a demurrer declaring the railroads bringing the suit have not applied for an exemption from the law's provisions and are not entitled to relief.

Arguments of State.
The morning and greater part of the afternoon were taken up with the arguments on the demurrer. Judge Hook took the demurrer under advise ment and announced he would hear the arguments relative to a temporary injunction and hand down the two decisions together.

In arguing in favor of the demurrer Judson and West contended that the plaintiff's bill on its face, did not show that they had made proper application to the corporation commission for exemption from the two-cent rate, as provided in the Oklahoma constitution and had no right to appeal to the federal court until they had done so. The railroads also had no right to bunch the freight rates, as they were distinct and separate and should be attacked separately, they said.

Frank Hagerman, of Kansas City,
special counsel for the railroads, contended that was neither the corporation commission or the Oklahoma state supreme court would give the railroads a supersedeas they were entitled to an appeal to a federal court.
He also held that the freight rates were not confiscatory and that under the constitution of the United States the corporation commission has not the right to tie up the railroads the state courts and that they had a right to appeal to the federal court.

Injunction Fight.
Arguments on the injunction suit
were begun by Attorney Hagerman.
The injunction suit attacks a provision of the constitution of Oklahoma by which the state corporation

HOUSE PARTY FUNCTIONS.

Mrs. Richard W. Simpson's House Party, Including Score of Leading Ada Ladies, Devotees of Entertainment of Guests in the City.

It was known that there were several society events during Christmas week, and usual to what might be termed a habit, the News office requested one of its lady friends to prepare for the reporter a brief synopsis of the social events of the week, which she obligingly did in the exact and brief manner requested, and for which sincere appreciation was felt.

The demand of both time and space required that only very brief mention, which was in the synopsis furnished be published at the time, but since, being regarded that the more elaborate social functions of last week were participated in by a score of Ada's leading social ladies in arrangement of house party by Mrs. Richard W. Simpson in honor of distinguished out of the city guests, a somewhat more extended mention is hereunder had of the house party functions.

One of the most elaborate social events of the season was the reception tendered by Mrs. R. W. Simpson December 29th, complimentary to her guest, Mrs. W. P. Long, of Tupelo, Miss., and Mrs. Julius Meaders, of McAlester, Okla.

The recipients of the "At Home" cards rightly anticipated a happy occasion, for Mrs. Simpson is a charming hostess.

Christmas decorations had been tastefully arranged throughout the house.

The personnel of the house party who assisted in entertaining was as follows: Mesdames W. H. Ebey, Tom Hope, W. D. Hays, A. K. Thornton, E. K. Higgins, Geo. L. Kice, Jno. McKinley, Geo. Frierson, C. H. Rives, V. Hale, F. W. LeFevre, W. N. Mays, C. H. Galbraith, J. T. Conn.

The guests were received at the front door by Mrs. W. H. Ebey, while in the reception hall they were greeted by Mrs. Tom Hope. At the rear of the hall where their wraps were deposited, Mrs. W. D. Hays stood at the register, and after the guests had registered they were received into the parlor by Mrs. A. K. Thornton, where they were met by the gracious hostess and introduced to Mrs. W. P. Long, Mrs. J. Meaders and Mrs. E. K. Higgins. They were then ushered into the dining room by Mrs. Geo. L. Kice, where they were met by Mrs. Jno. McKinley and were served by Mesdames Geo. Frierson, C. H. Rives and V. Hale to tea or coffee, sandwiches and salted nuts.

From the dining room they were received by Mrs. F. W. LeFevre into the sitting room where the yuletide decorations had been made effective by a real Christmas tree, where they were presented by Mrs. W. N. Mays and Mrs. C. H. Galbraith with artistic Xmas favors.

Little Miss Annie Carroll Simpson received the cards.

Mesdames Ebey and Galbraith.

On Thursday, Dec. 30, Mrs. W. H. Ebey and Mrs. C. H. Galbraith, in compliment to Mrs. W. P. Long, who is Mrs. R. W. Simpson's guest, entertained Mrs. Simpson's house party and Mesdames M. D. Timberlake, S. M. Torbett and Claude Rodamel.

The interior was beautifully decorated in holly, Christmas bells and cut flowers, the dining room in red carnations, and the effect of the red shaded lights was very pretty.

After the games of 42, the guests were invited into the dining room where a buffet luncheon was served by Mrs. M. D. Timberlake and Mrs. A. K. Thornton.

Many were the compliments passed on the hostesses by their friends who were afforded such a pleasant afternoon.

Mrs. W. N. Mays.

Friday afternoon the beautiful home of Mrs. J. T. Higgins was opened by Mrs. W. N. Mays to the house party. Mrs. Mays entertained in honor of her sister-in-law, Mrs. E. K. Higgins, of McKensie, Tenn., who is a social favorite in society realm in this city.

Christmas decorations were prevalent and gave the rooms even a prettier appearance than usual.

After the game of 42, a tempting luncheon was served. The first course was so prettily served, the quail being imbedded in red.

Mrs. Rodamel won first prize, a beautiful calendar. Calendars were presented to the guests of honor, Mesdames E. K. Higgins, W. P. Long and J. Meaders.

The hostess, Mrs. Mays, has the gift of making such an occasion a very pleasant one to her guests.

Mrs. Geo. Frierson.

The house party spent a very pleasant afternoon with Mrs. George Frierson when she and Mrs. Jno. McKinley gave a new years party, in compliment to Mrs. W. P. Long. That these two ladies are artists as entertainers, was conceded by their guests on this happy new years occasion.

42 was the amusement for the hour, and just as the game was concluded each guest received a telegram bearing best wishes for the year.

A three course luncheon was served—grape fruit, crabs with saratoga chips, sherbet.

Toasts were given by Mrs. Tom Hope and Mrs. F. W. LeFevre, Mrs. Hope to the hostesses, Mrs. Frierson and Mrs. McKinley, and Mrs. LeFevre to the guests.

Hand-embroidered runners were presented to the guests of honor, Mesdames Long, Meaders, Higgins and Simpson.

DIFFICULTIES DAILY COUNTRY PRESS

ment of a society editor. The very large percentage of this little press'
advertising patronage—the support
that's worth while—is received from
those whose regard for any society
columns of the News would be distinctly negligible. There is acknowledged—even asserted—the superiority
of the finesse of the culture and attractiveness of the Ada society la-
on earth. But not being able to support a society editor and being compelled to direct our personal attention toward the wolf at the door,

rather than towards the lambs at
News' society columns have been in
the past limited to the reports secured through the kindly and appreciated offices of some sympathizing
lady friend.

There is deeply appreciated the re-
sionally favored the News with a brief
synopsis of the lately preceding social events. These ladies understood
the difficulties with which a country daily press are confronted in
gathering and editing the social
properly be contributed to such class
of occurrences. It will be very satisfactory indeed when the News has
most exacting social requirements.

HOLD YOUR HAT.

Some of the prospective candidates
the offices to which they aspire, appearing to be undecided relative to the personal political discretion of announcing now or later. While un-
willing to assume to know which
action would be best for the proposed candidates of our friends and
being duly respectful of the timeliness of the receipt of the announcement fees, there has been frankly
stated, that it would better conserve
candidates and the party which they
horses for a while longer.

The longer, the more expensive the
an active campaign, the more hazard, that there might be injected in
the campaign those personal equations reflective personally and on the
party. It is a good while till August,
the month of the primary election,

could well be consumed by both can-
always imperfect financial fences.

Yes, boys, let's not drop the bat
for a little while longer, then for a
fair race to the finish!

Yesterday's issue of the Denison
Herald contained a letter addressed
to the editor of that paper from Commander Robert Peary, north pole
discoverer, thanking the editor for
his apology to the explorer for attacking his feat.

Peary states in the letter that, as far as he has learned, the Herald is
the only newspaper in this country
that has acknowledged its error. He
refers to his declaration of several months ago when he branded Cook as a fakir, and he now bids the newspaper of the country, by saying that almost without exception
they express themselves in this
childish way: "Peary appears to have been right, but he was no gentleman to have used the language
that he did."

Perhaps Peary used dum language,
but for the past few weeks most
people are free to admit that he was not a bit too harsh on one Doctor Cook.

At a very old age and almost blind, General William Booth of the Salvation Army is engaged in writing his autobiography. The veteran leader of the army lives near London and he receives daily congratulations on his remarkable energy.

Frank Gould is being sued for a quarter of a million of dollars by an actress, Old Jay Gould is always getting his money mixed up with actresses.

the possessor of an old ledger dated the years 1804-05 that is a curiosity as well as a relic of value. The ledger was the property of his grandfather who was a storekeeper in Kentucky 105 years ago. In those days values were measured by pounds, shillings and pence. The principal products were tobacco and whiskey, the former bringing from 10 to 20 cents per pound and the latter from 50 cents to $1 per gallon. Calico was considerably over $1 per yard and very little was sold.—Duncan Banner.

TALK OF THE DAY.

Standing before a mirror, John
Burchell, Jr., of Halcottsville, Delaware county, N. Y., took his jack-
knife and cut around five of his aching teeth loosening them a little, after which he inserted a pair of pinchers in his mouth and coolly pulled
out the trouble makers one by one.

A short time after this operation
them.

Burchell had suffered for several
days from toothache and although
of them appeared to do him any good.
He then decided that he had sufficient nerve and grit to act as his own dentist.—Boston Globe.

James Finnerty of Uniontown, Pa., with a big bank account and benev-
to prisoners in the lockup at Washington, Pa. Finnerty, who says he
fine was imposed he tendered in payment a check for $100. Telephone

communication with a Uniontown
funds there.

As he was leaving court he turned
to a half score of prisoners arraigned before Justice Hoyt and asked if
were penniless, he paid the total of
their fines. Not waiting to receive
thanks, he disappeared.

an armful of chrysanthemums and
presented the burgess and each member of the police force with one. One
in the lockup and having a hearing
Uniontown man was arraigned, was
balled out by the generous stranger.

When Finnerty departed for Union-
escorted to the station by a band of
grateful ex-prisoners, each wearing a yellow chrysanthemum.—Pittsburg Dispatch.

Constitution Clause Is Attacked by
West in Charge.

St. Louis, Jan. 3.—Arguments in
the injunction suit instituted by three
railroad companies against the state
of Oklahoma to prevent enforcement of two-cent a mile passenger
rate, were begun today before Judge William C. Hook, sitting as a district judge for the Western district of Oklahoma.

Charles West, attorney-general of Oklahoma, assisted by F. N. Judson,
of St. Louis, presented a demurrer
declaring the railroads bringing the
suit have not applied for an exemp-
are not entitled to relief.

arguments on the demurrer. Judge Hook took the demurrer under advice ment and announced he would
hear the arguments relative to a
temporary injunction and hand down
the two decisions together.

In arguing in favor of the demur-
show that they had made proper
mission for exemption from the two-
cent rate, as provided in the Okla-
to appeal to the federal court until
rates, as they were distinct and separate and should be attacked separately, they said.

Frank Hagerman, of Kansas City,
special counsel for the railroads, con-
tended that was neither the corporation commission or the Oklahoma
railroads a supersedeas they were entitled to an appeal to a federal court.
He also held that the freight rates
were not confiscatory and that under the constitution of the United
roads the state courts and that they
court.

Injunction Fight.

Arguments on the injunction suit
were begun by Attorney Hagerman.

HOUSE PARTY FUNCTIONS.

Mrs. Richard W. Simpson's House Party, including Score of Leading Ada Ladies, Devotees of Entertainment of Guests in the City.

It was known that there were several society events during Christmas and usual to what might be termed a habit, the News office requested one of its lady friends to prepare for the reporter a brief synopsis of the social events of the week, which she obligingly did in the exact and brief manner requested, and for which sincere appreciation was felt.

The demand of both time and space required that only very brief mention, which was in the synopsis furnished be published at the time, but since, being regarded that the more elaborate social functions of last week were participated in by a score of Ada's leading social ladies in arrangement of house party by Mrs. Richard W. Simpson in honor of distinguished out of the city guests, a somewhat more extended mention is hereunder had of the house party functions.

One of the most elaborate social events of the season was the reception tendered by Mrs. R. W. Simpson December 29th, complimentary to her guest, Mrs. W. P. Long, of Tupelo, Miss., and Mrs. Julius Meaders, of McAlester, Okla.

The recipients of the "At Home" cards rightly anticipated a happy occasion, for Mrs. Simpson is a charming hostess.

The personnel of the house party who assisted in entertaining was as follows: Mesdames W. H. Ebey, Tom Hope, W. D. Hays, A. K. Thornton, E. K. Higgins, Geo. L. Kice, Jno. McKinley, Geo. Frierson, C. H. Rives, V. Hale, F. W. LeFevre, W. N. Mays, C. H. Galbraith, J. T. Conn.

The guests were received at the front door by Mrs. W. H. Ebey, while in the reception hall they were greeted by Mrs. Tom Hope. At the rear of the hall where their wraps were deposited, Mrs. W. D. Hays stood at the register, and after the guests had registered they were received into the parlor by Mrs. A. K. Thornton, where they were met by the gracious hostess and introduced to Mrs. W. P. Long, Mrs. J. Meaders and Mrs. E. K. Higgins. They were then ushered into the dining room by Mrs. Geo. L. Kice, where they were met by Mrs. Jno. McKinley and were served by Mesdames Geo. Frierson, C. H. Rives and V. Hale to tea or coffee, sandwiches and salted nuts.

From the dining room they were received by Mrs. F. W. LeFevre into the sitting room where the yuletide decorations had been made effective by a real Christmas tree, where they were presented by Mrs. W. N. Mays and Mrs. C. H. Galbraith with artistic Xmas favors.

Little Miss Annie Carroll Simpson received the cards.

Mesdames Ebey and Galbraith. On Thursday, Dec. 30, Mrs. W. H. Ebey and Mrs. C. H. Galbraith, in compliment to Mrs. W. P. Long, who is Mrs. R. W. Simpson's guest, entertained Mrs. Simpson's house party and Mesdames M. D. Timberlake, S. M. Torbett and Claude Rodarmel. The interior was beautifully decorated in holly, Christmas bells and cut flowers, the dining room in red carnations, and the effect of the red shaded lights was very pretty.

After the games of 42, the guests were invited into the dining room where a buffet luncheon was served by Mrs. M. D. Timberlake and Mrs. A. K. Thornton.

Many were the compliments passed on the hostesses by their friends who were afforded such a pleasant afternoon.

Mrs. W. N. Mays.

Friday afternoon the beautiful home of Mrs. J. T. Higgins was opened by Mrs. W. N. Mays to the house party. Mrs. Mays entertained in honor of her sister-in-law, Mrs. E. K. Higgins, of McKenzie, Tenn., who is a social favorite in society realm in this city.

Christmas decorations were prevalent and gave the rooms even a prettier appearance than usual.

After the game of 42, a tempting luncheon was served. The first course was so prettily served, the quail being imbedded in red.

Mrs. Rodarmel won first prize, a beautiful calendar. Calendars were presented to the guests of honor, Mesdames E. K. Higgins, W. P. Long and J. Meaders.

The hostess, Mrs. Mays, has the gift of making such an occasion a very pleasant one to her guests.

Mrs. Geo. Frierson.

The house party spent a very pleasant afternoon with Mrs. George Frierson when she and Mrs. Jno. McKinley gave a new years party, in compliment to Mrs. W. P. Long. That these two ladies are artists as entertainers, was conceded by their guests on this happy new years occasion.

42 was the amusement for the hour, and just as the game was concluded each guest received a telegram bearing best wishes for the year.

A three-course luncheon was served—grape fruit, crabs, with saratoga chips, sherbet.

Toasts were given by Mrs. Tom Hope and Mrs. F. W. LeFevre, Mrs. Hope to the hostesses, Mrs. Frierson and Mrs. McKinley, and Mrs. LeFevre to the guests.

Uplifted hand-embroidered runners were presented to the guests of honor, Mesdames Long, Meaders, Higgins and Simpson.

not sufficient to afford the employment of a society editor. The very large percentage of this little press'
advertising patronage—the support
that's worth while—is received from
columns of the News would be distinctly negligible. There is acknowledged—even asserted—the superiority
of the finesse of the culture and attractiveness of the Ada society la-
on earth. But not being able to support a society editor and being compelled to direct our personal attention toward the wolf at the door,

rather than towards the lambs at
the slaughter, very necessarily the News' society columns have been in
cured through the kindly and appreciated offices of some sympathizing
lady friend.

There is deeply appreciated the re-
sionally favored the News with a brief
synopsis of the lately preceding social events. These ladies understood
the difficulties with which a country daily press are confronted in
gathering and editing the social
properly be contributed to such class
of occurrences. It will be very satisfactory indeed when the News has
most exacting social requirements.

HOLD YOUR HAT.

Some of the prospective candidates
the offices to which they aspire, ap-
the personal political discreetness of
announcing now or later. While un-
willing to assume to know which
action would be best for the proposed candidates of our friends and
being duly respectful of the timeliness of the receipt of the announcement fees, there has been frankly
stated, that it would better conserve
candidates and the party which they
horses for a while longer.

The longer, the more expensive the
an active campaign, the more hazard, that there might be injected in
the campaign those personal equa-
party. It is a good while till August,
the month of the primary election.

The late winter and the early spring could well be convinced by both candidates and voters in improving the always imperfect financial fences.
Yes, boys, let's not drop the hat
for a little while longer, then for a
fair race to the finish!

Yesterday's issue of the Denison
Herald contained a letter addressed
to the editor of that paper from Commander Robert Peary, north pole
discoverer, thanking the editor for
his apology to the explorer for at-tires: discrediting his feat.

Peary states in the letter that, as far as he has learned, the Herald is
the only newspaper in this country
that has acknowledged its error. He
refers to his declaration of several months ago when he branded Cook as a 'faker', and he now hits the newspapers of the country, by say-
they express themselves in this
childish way: "Peary appears to have been right, but he was no gentleman to have used the language
that he did."

Perhaps Peary used bum language,
but for the past few weeks most
people are free to admit that he was not a bit too harsh on one Doctor Cook.

At a very old age and almost
blind, General William Booth of the Salvation Army is engaged in writing his autobiography. The veteran don and he receives daily congratulations on his remarkable energy.

were tobacco and whisky, the former bringing from 10 to 20 cents per pound and the latter from 50 cents
to $1 per gallon. Calico was considerably over $1 per yard and very little was sold.—Duncan Banner.

TALK OF THE DAY.

Standing before a mirror, John
Burchell, Jr., of Halcottsville, Delaware county, N. Y., took his jack-
knife and cut around five of his aching teeth loosening them a little, after which he inserted a pair of
out the trouble makers one by one.

A short time after this operation
them.

Burchell had suffered for several
days from toothache and although
of them appeared to do him any good.
He then decided that he had suf-
own dentist.—Boston Globe.

James Finnerty of Uniontown, Pa.,
with a big bank account and benev-
to prisoners in the lockup at Washington, Pa. Finnerty, who says he
fine was imposed he tendered in payment a check for $100. Telephone

communication with a Uniontown
funds there.

As he was leaving court he turned
to a half score of prisoners arraigned before Justice Hoyt and asked if
were penniless, he paid the total of
their fines. Not waiting to receive
thanks, he disappeared.

an armful of chrysanthemums and
presented the burgess and each member of the police force with one. One prisoner who after expending the night in the lockup and having a hearing
Uniontown man was arraigned, was
balled out by the generous stranger.

When Finnerty departed for Union-
escorted to the station by a band of
grateful ex-prisoners, each wearing a yellow chrysanthemum.—Pittsburg Dispatch.

OKLAHOMA AND RAILROADS COM- MENCE SCRAP.

Constitution Chase Is Attacked by
West in Charge.

St. Louis, Jan. 8.—Arguments in
the injunction suit instituted by three
of Oklahoma to prevent enforcement of two-cent a mile passenger
rate, were begun today before Judge William C. Hook, sitting as a district judge for the Western district of Oklahoma.

Charles West, attorney-general of Oklahoma, assisted by F. N. Judson,
of St. Louis, presented a demurrer
declaring the railroads bringing the
suit have not applied for an exemp-
are not entitled to relief.

arguments on the demurrer. Judge Hook took the demurrer under ad-
hear the arguments relative to a
temporary injunction and hand down
the two decisions together.

In arguing in favor of the demur-
show that they had made proper
mission for exemption from the two-
cent rate, as provided in the Okla-
to appeal to the federal court until
rates, as they were distinct and separate and should be attacked separately, they said.

Frank Hagerman, of Kansas City,
special counsel for the railroads, con-
tended that was neither the corporation commission or the Oklahoma
railroads a supersedeas they were entitled to an appeal to a federal court.
He also held that the freight rates
were not confiscatory and that under the constitution of the United
roads the state courts and that they
court.

Injunction Fight.
Arguments on the injunction suit
were begun by Attorney Hagerman.
The injunction suit attacks a provision of the constitution of Oklahoma by which the state corporation

HOUSE PARTY FUNCTIONS.

Mrs. Richard W. Simpson's House Party, including Score of Leading Ada Ladies, Devotees of Entertainment of Guests in the City.

It was known that there were several society events during Christmas, and usual to what might be termed a habit, the News-office requested one of its lady friends to prepare for the reporter a brief synopsis of the social events of the week, which she obligingly did in the exact and brief manner requested, and for which sincere appreciation was felt.

The demand of both time and space required that only very brief mention, which was in the synopsis furnished be published at the time, but since, being regarded that the more elaborate social functions of last week were participated in by a score of Ada's leading social ladies in arrangement of house party by Mrs. Richard W. Simpson in honor of distinguished out of the city guests, a somewhat more extended mention is hereunder had of the house party functions.

One of the most elaborate social events of the season was the reception tendered by Mrs. R. W. Simpson December 29th, complimentary to her guest, Mrs. W. P. Long, of Tupelo, Miss., and Mrs. Julius Meaders, of McAlester, Okla.

The recipients of the "At Home" cards rightly anticipated a happy occasion, for Mrs. Simpson is a charming hostess.

The personnel of the house party who assisted in entertaining was as follows: Mesdames W. H. Ebey, Tom Hope, W. D. Hays, A. K. Thornton, E. K. Higgins, Geo. L. Klee, Jno. McKinley, Geo. Frierson, C. H. Rives, V. Hale, F. W. LeFevre, W. N. Mays, C. H. Galbraith, J. T. Conn.

The guests were received at the front door by Mrs. W. H. Ebey, while in the reception hall they were greeted by Mrs. Tom Hope. At the rear of the hall where their wraps were deposited, Mrs. W. D. Hays stood at the register, and after the guests had registered they were received into the parlor by Mrs. A. K. Thornton, where they were met by the gracious hostess and introduced to Mrs. W. P. Long, Mrs. J. Meaders and Mrs. E. K. Higgins. They were then ushered into the dining room by Mrs. Geo. L. Klee, where they were met by Mrs. Jno. McKinley and were served by Mesdames Geo. Frierson, C. H. Rives and V. Hale to tea or coffee, sandwiches and salted nuts.

From the dining room they were received by Mrs. F. W. LeFevre into the sitting room where the yuletide decorations had been made effective by a real Christmas tree, where they were presented by Mrs. W. N. Mays and Mrs. C. H. Galbraith with artistic Xmas favors.

Little Miss Annie Carroll Simpson received the cards.

Mesdames Ebey and Galbraith.

On Thursday, Dec. 30, Mrs. W. H. Ebey, and Mrs. C. H. Galbraith, in compliment to Mrs. W. P. Long, who is Mrs. R. W. Simpson's guest, entertained Mrs. Simpson's house party and Mesdames M. D. Timberlake, S. M. Torbett and Claude Rodarmel.

The interior was beautifully decorated in holly, Christmas bells and cut flowers, the dining room in red carnations, and the effect of the red shaded lights was very pretty.

After the games of 42, the guests were invited into the dining room where a buffet luncheon was served by Mrs. M. D. Timberlake and Mrs. A. K. Thornton.

Many were the compliments passed on the hostesses by their friends who were afforded such a pleasant afternoon.

Mrs. W. N. Mays.

Friday afternoon the beautiful home of Mrs. J. T. Higgins was opened by Mrs. W. N. Mays to the house party. Mrs. Mays entertained in honor of her sister-in-law, Mrs. E. K. Higgins, of McKensie, Tenn., who is a social favorite in society realm in this city.

Christmas decorations were prevalent and gave the rooms even a prettier appearance than usual.

After the game of 42, a tempting luncheon was served. The first course was so prettily served, the quail being imbedded in red.

Mrs. Rodarmel won first prize, a beautiful calendar. Calendars were presented to the guests of honor, Mesdames E. K. Higgins, W. P. Long and J. Meaders.

The hostess, Mrs. Mays, has the gift of making such an occasion a very pleasant one to her guests.

Mrs. Geo. Frierson.

The house party spent a very pleasant afternoon with Mrs. George Frierson when she and Mrs. Jno. McKinley gave a new years party, in compliment to Mrs. W. P. Long. That two ladies are artists as entertainers, was conceded by their guests on this happy new years occasion.

42 was the amusement for the hour, and just as the game was concluded each guest received a telegram bearing best wishes for the year.

A three course luncheon was served—grape fruit, crabs with spratoga chips, sherbet.

Toasts were given by Mrs. Tom Hope and Mrs. F. W. LeFevre, Mrs. Hope to the hostesses, Mrs. Frierson and Mrs. McKinley, and Mrs. LeFevre to the guests.

Open, hand-embroidered runners were presented to the guests of honor, Mesdames Long, Meaders, Higgins and Simpson.
